

Certification/Adding a New Category
Policy Adopted by the Board January 17, 1997

The recertification cycle is based on the date a person enters the system and each successive five year interval. Within that timeframe, the person must accumulate ten or fifteen recertification credits in order to renew their operator or master licenses. Adding a category or upgrading from operator to master will NOT extend a certification period.